Alpine skiing

Trysil – Norway's largest ski resort

Trysil is Norway's largest ski resort with 69 slopes and 41 lifts, well adapted for the whole family. Trysil has four interconnected ski areas with a total of 81 kilometers of skiing spread in three directions – a mix of long nice slopes in the mountains and in the forest. Trysil has three childrens areas, snow parks for beginners and experienced, as well as a comprehensive weekly program with many activities for the children.

Fulufjellet

Fulufjellet Alpine Centre is an intimate and family-friendly resort in the heart of Trysil's magnificent nature. The resort has 2 lifts and 9 slopes of all levels of difficulty, and a park with jumps and rails. The alpine center is west-facing and sunny under the Fulufjell plateau, close to the gateway to Fulufjellet National Park, located only 45 minutes from Trysil town center.

Cross-country skiing

More than 500 kilometres of cross-country trails are prepared in Trysil throughout the winter season.

The trails in and around the mountain Trysilfjellet are connected with the trails in Slettås, Vestby and Grøndalen – a total of more than 150 km. In the villages and mountain areas around Trysil you find more trails.

- Skihytta and Fageråsen are excellent starting points
- Trysilfjellet Arena is an ideal training arena for cross-country and biathlon. Floodlit every day
- Information about open tracks:

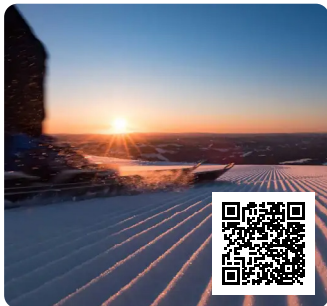

The cross-country map is for free! Get it at our welcome centers, receptions and info stations in Trysil.

Please do not walk on the cross country tracks.

Early Morning Skiing

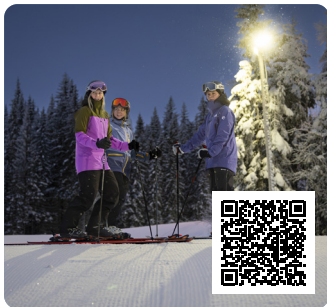

Enjoy freshly groomed slopes with short lift queues and plenty of space to carve turns as the sun rises. Every Wednesday and Saturday at 07:00 – 09:00 from the 7th February – 11th April in Trysil ski resort.

Night Skiing

Experience the magic of night skiing in Trysil. Non stop skiing until 20:00 every* Monday, Wednesday and Friday from the 19th December to the 10th April.

*No evening skiing on 1st and 3rd April.

Kiting

The areas around Trysil offer some of Norway's best conditions for snow kiting. Kiteskolen.no offers courses adapted to all levels.

Dog sledding

Dog sledding is excitement, adventure and great experiences – in Trysil you can choose between different tours. Several times a week, you can join our dog sledding teams on a trip. Choose between shorter trips lasting 30–40 minutes and trips lasting up to half a day. The tours are suitable for both adults and children.

Sleigh rides

Sleigh rides are a winter adventure in Trysil's deep forests. The sound of dome bells and the light of torches accompany you on the atmospheric walk into the forest. The destination for the trip is a lavvo – choose between a family trip with a 3-course dinner or a shorter trip with light refreshments.

Horseback riding

Explore the joy of horseback riding in Trysil's majestic surroundings. A riding tour gives you the opportunity to experience nature through exciting wilderness and in snowy landscapes.

Ski School

Regardless of level, you will benefit greatly from ski school. Whether you are a complete beginner or looking for Trysil's best off-piste, SkiStar Guides offer both group ski school, private lessons and a large selection of guided experiences. More information, booking and opening hours at skistar.com

Activities with Valle

Valle, the children's favorite snowman, lives in Trysil ski resort and throughout the winter there are several activities with Valle and his friends. Get a complete overview of the activities with Valle in the SkiStar app.

Ski school – nordic cross-country

Become a better skier with courses and guiding. Both Anita Moen's ski school and SkiStar Guides offer cross-country skiing courses through the winter.

Snowshoeing and wilderness trips

Join Wolverine Adventure for an unforgettable experience in the winter mountains. Choose between night tours, family-friendly tours and adventurous tours searching for animal tracks.

Northern light tours

Experience the incredible colors of the Northern Lights moving across the sky. Between December and March, Trysil is dark from early afternoon until late in the morning, and the Northern Lights often float across the sky. If you are lucky, you can see the Northern Lights dancing across the night sky.

Alpaca hiking

Alpaca hiking is a relaxing and family-friendly activity, where you explore nature together with friendly alpacas. A unique experience perfect for family and friends and creates memories for life, not far from Trysil town centre.

Ice bathing and sauna

At Trysilølva Camping, you can take a refreshing swim in the Trysilølva river and warm up in the sauna by the riverbank.

Ice skating rink

Open ice skating rink at Fladhagenparken, in Trysil town centre. Practice your ice dancing, do pirouettes, or play ice hockey – sticks are available to borrow on spot. Remember to bring your own skates.

Snowmobile tours

Fulufjellet is located in the eastern part of Trysil and offers guided snowmobile tours – this is the winter's most exciting adventures. Choose between short and long trips. It is also possible to book a trip over several days.

Villa Fregn

Fulufjellet

Moonbikes, also called electric snow bikes, is a winter activity a little out of the ordinary. Try moonbikes at Villa Fregn, who offers both 1-hour and 2-hours tours.

Toboggan run

Try an experience out of the ordinary – experience one of Norway's longest toboggan runs. The Toboggan run is 1600 meters and if the conditions are good, the toboggan can go up to 70 km/h. This is suitable for a group of friends, work colleagues and families.

SPA

Treat yourself to an hour or two of relaxation in one of Trysil's spa facilities. Kulpen Spa at SkiStar Lodge Trysil and Alpine Spa & Relax at Radisson Blu Resort Trysil has a wide range of SPA treatments, pools, jacuzzi and saunas.

Adventure Pool

At Radisson Blu Resort Trysil you'll find Surfer's Bay, a family-friendly waterpark with several pools, jacuzzi, sauna, water streams and climbing wall. Surfer's Bay sells swimwear and other bathing accessories. You'll also find FlowRider® - perfect if you want to try surfing indoors.

Bowling

Challenge your friends or family on state-of-the-art bowling lanes in a beautiful setting. There is also a game room with state-of-the-art arcade games and pool tables.

Library

Trysil Public Library is located in Trysil town center. In total, they have over 40,000 titles available for loan: books, DVDs, audiobooks, music, language courses, newspapers, and magazines.

Cinema

Would you like to enjoy a good movie? Head over to Trysil Cinema located in Trysil town center. Enjoy a moment alone with a great movie or bring the whole family.
